

THE WEST GAP GANG

The town of West Gap is home to some of the worst outlaws in the old west. You must stop them and make the town safe for law-abiding citizens.

You need: paper or cardstock, scissors, 5 paper clips, tape, and a really good rubber band

1. Print these varmints onto stiff paper or cardstock
2. Cut out along the thick black lines.
3. Bend a paper clip and tape half to the back of a cowboy.
4. Line the men up and shoot at them with the rubber band.

Sly Malone: Just in from Chicago, Sly is the fastest draw this side of the street.

Tex Texson: Don't be fooled by his incoherent ramblings, Tex is one sly hombre.

Melvin G. Ossinsen: He may look innocent, but some think Melvin is the ringleader of this band.

"One Eye" Cassimon: He's only got one eye, and he's ugly. What else do you need to know?

Horace Jones: Likes watercolors and kitty cats
